ELECTRIC RAILWAY

MOVIE NIGHT

Saturday, November 27, 8:00 P.M.

ANNOUNCING the fifth annual Movie Program presented by the national Electric Railroaders' Association. We sincerely believe that these are the finest electric railway movies to be shown before any railfan group in the country.

FEATURING an extensive program of color movies of high quality and unusual railfan interest, covering trolley and electric railway operations in Illinois Terminal (including Granite City), Kansas City, Quebec Railway, Light & Power, Toronto (lines to be abandoned with opening of new subway), Pittsburgh (North Side lines now abandoned), and a special reel on New York City (streetcar and open platform elevated operation). There will be additional film if time permits.

OVAL ROOM
Club 65, 140 East 8th Street
New York City - 3rd Floor

HOW TO GET THERE:

IRT Division: Lexington Ave. local trains to "Astor Place" station - walk west

BMT Division: Local trains along Broadway (Manhattan) to 8th Street - walk east

IND Division: Any train (except GG) to West 4th St.- exit at north end to 8th Street then east.

PATH : Uptown Line- take 33rd St. trains and get off at 9th St.- walk one block south to 8th St. then east.

Those traveling via IND or PATH can use eastbound crosstown bus (#13) to avoid ten minute walk in rain, snow etc.
